not the material out of which such meetings are made; - but such as it may be it will do good service to the cause, and need not draw largely upon your strength. We will endeavor to render you comfortable while a care for you in Albany - Our good friend Maria Marriott will give you a most cordial reception here.

We are all filled with deep regret to hear of P. Pillsbury's critical condition.
I realize a steady, but slow improvement in my own health. I deeply regret that so propitious a winter for labor should anti-slavery career - but I trust that wisdom and strength will come of the season of rest.

My kindest regards to Mrs. G. & the children - As ever yours

Thursday evening.—

Dear Mr. Garrison:

16 I received yours of the 16th, at Ghent, this morning.
The arrangement of meetings, which you suggest, is entirely satisfactory.

I have this p.m. secured the

Thursday and Friday, March 11 & 12;— and this evening have effected an engagement of the Hall in Poughkeepsie for Monday and Tuesday,

I forwarded to Lydia Mott, at once, your suggestion in regard to
